DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed March 22, 2000 (paper no. 2) has been considered.

Specification

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Art Unit: 2871

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Koma (US6157428A).

Koma teaches (Fig. 17) an LCD with each pixel being formed of a plurality of differently oriented regions of an alignment layer comprising an electrode 109 with at least one aperture formed along the boundary between adjacent differently oriented regions in an alignment layer 110 that is deposited on top of the said electrode and also in the said aperture, with the said adjacent, differently oriented regions orienting the respective liquid crystal molecules to be vertical or almost vertical when no electric field is applied via the said electrode.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-8, and ~~10~~ 19 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-8 and 10-19 are allowable because there is no prior art of record that teaches a liquid crystal display comprising an electrode with at least one aperture formed along the boundary between adjacent differently oriented regions in an alignment layer, wherein the shortest allowable width W of the said aperture (5) is equal to the width (X) of the defectively oriented region in the said boundary.

Claims 10 and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

Koma (US6157428A) published Dec. 2000 discloses (Fig. 17) a liquid crystal display comprising an electrode 109 with at least one aperture formed along the boundary between adjacent differently oriented regions in an alignment layer 110 that is deposited on top of the said electrode and also in the said aperture, with the said adjacent, differently oriented regions orienting the respective liquid crystal molecules.

Shimada et al. (US6147722A) published Nov. 2000 disclose a liquid crystal display comprising an electrode 140 with at least one aperture formed along the boundary between adjacent differently oriented regions in an alignment layer 150 that is deposited on top of the said electrode and also in the said aperture.

Koike et al. (US6040885A) published May 2000 disclose a liquid crystal display comprising an electrode 22 with at least one aperture H formed along the boundary between adjacent differently oriented regions in an alignment layer 44c/44d/44h that is deposited on top of the said electrode and also in the said aperture.
